FEEDING PRACTICES: Our recommendation for properly feeding a young puppy is to use a high protein large breed puppy food until the age of four (4) months. At that time, we recommend that you mix half puppy and half adult food of high-quality large breed dog food for the next two (2) months, and then switch to adult dog food at six (6) months. Under no circumstance should the puppy/dog be allowed to become obese, or underweight, and growth should never be accelerated with additives. If you have further questions, consult your veterinarian.

TEMPERAMENT: Our breeding program breeds intelligent, loving, friendly, loyal dogs. However, we make no warranty as to the eventual personality of the animal due to the influence of the environment and training techniques, or lack thereof.

VOIDING OF WARRANTY/CONTRACT WILL OCCUR:

- If the purchaser allows this dog to become obese or undernourished at any time. Recent studies contend that diet and physical condition can greatly contribute, if not actually be a cause of hip and joint problems in large breed dogs. Although these disorders can be hereditary, poor diet, overfeeding, or improper exercising of a puppy is a known contributor to these disorders.
- If there are any signs of abuse or neglect to your dog.
- If injuries occurred while under the care of the Buyer such as broken bones, trauma, etc.
- If the Buyer does not follow through with vaccination requirements and the required vet visit stated in the above paragraph.
- If the purchaser does not feed this dog a recommended premium large breed puppy formula food. Low-quality dog food is a sure way to malnourish or adversely affect the development of a puppy. While the puppy may appear to be at the appropriate weight for their age, low-quality dog foods fail to supply the necessary proteins and nutrients required for proper growth of the muscular-skeletal system, and proper growth of the neurological system and the brain.
- The Seller requires the Buyer to feed only a high-quality large breed puppy formula. If there is any evidence of abusive exercising such as excessive treadmill or track running; or any evidence of lack of appropriate exercise. The Seller wants your dog to play sensibly; it should be in a reasonable manner so as not to potentially do damage to bones and joints.
- Buyer must NOT spay or neuter their puppy until the puppy is at least one year old, due to their bone health.

Please note: If your selected puppy becomes unavailable due to illness, a previously unnoticed birth defect, or death, you will be offered the choice of another puppy from a different litter, or a full refund.

This contract is non-transferable
